

Policies for borrowing Bats Northwest's Project EduBat Bat Trunk:

- Borrowers of the Bat Trunk should be teachers, librarians or others intending to use the Bat Trunk for educational purposes. Please describe your program briefly.
- The contents of the Bat Trunk must be returned intact and in good condition. Please make copies of written handouts and return originals.
- The Bat Trunk can be borrowed for up to four weeks.
- Pickup and return at Bats Northwest monthly meeting, 6:30 - 7:30 pm at Sand Point Magnuson Park Building 30 in Seattle. Monthly meetings are usually the 3rd Tuesday of the month. (It may be possible to arrange a pickup in Kirkland, Bellevue or Stanwood, depending on Bats Northwest member availability.)
- Courtesy of Bats Northwest, there is no cost for educators to borrow the Bat Trunk (except for the cost of copying materials)
